

'Tis A Pity

To Stay Sick When a Postal Will Bring Help.

Please note this offer again. Send no money—just a postal, stating which book you need.

I will mail you an order—good at any drug store—for six bottles Dr. Schopp's Restorative. You may take it a month on trial. If it succeeds, the cost is $5.50. If it fails, I will pay the druggist myself—and your mere word shall decide it.

Just think what that means. It proves that I have faith in the remedy, and faith in the honesty of people. It shows that I have learned how to cure those diseases, else the offer would ruin me.

Let me convince you. You are waiting when you should be well. When the test is made, I don't want a penny, unless you are glad to pay.

My success comes from strengthening the inside nerves, which operate the vital organs. I have spent my life in learning how to do it. A weak organ means weak nerve power. It is like a weak engine that needs more steam. To doctor the organ is useless; what it needs is power to act. My Restorative alone brings back that power, and in most of those diseases no other way can cure.

My book will tell you why. Simply state which book you want, and address: Dr. Schopp, Box 10, Racine, Wis. (Book No. 1 on Dyspepsia, Book No. 2 on the Heart, Book No. 3 on the Kidneys, Book No. 4 for Women, Book No. 5 for Men, Book No. 6 on Rheumatism). Mail rates and charges often cured by one or two bottles. At all druggists.

Among the through passengers in the Hongkong Maru was Consul-General Goodnow, of Shanghai, who is bound to Washington to furnish any information wanted concerning the new commercial treaty between the United States and China. Mr. Goodnow was concerned in the cases of the Imperial Chinese Government against the editors of the "Supao" for the criticisms they made on a revolutionary pamphlet. He assisted in the prosecution of the editors who were sentenced to decapitation. It was the criticism of Volcano Marshall in the Shanghai Times of Mr. Goodnow and other officials that resulted in his being removed from the editorship of that paper.

ST. CLEMENT'S FAIR.

At the St. Clement's fair next Saturday afternoon and evening, one of the features will be the Colonial Harvest Home booth, in charge of Mrs. Charles L. Rhodes. There will be a representation of a reception by the Governor's lady in Colonial times. Mrs. Dole will take the part of the Governor's lady, and will be assisted by Mrs. B. F. Dillingham as Martha Washington, Mrs. W. A. Frear as a Makeress, and Mrs. Restarick and Mrs. C. Montague Cooke as Colonial dames. All will be in costume of the period represented. The refreshments served at this reception will be Boston brown bread, baked beans, and coffee. Mrs. Rhodes will be assisted in serving by Mrs. C. A. Galbraith, Mrs. Francis W. Smith, Mrs. E. M. Boyd, Mrs. George Smithies, Miss Luce, Miss Constance Restarick and Miss Marion Dillingham.

Another feature of the fair will be an anticipation of the "Pike" which is planned as one of the great attractions of the St. Louis fair next year. Here will be diversion and sport for children of all ages.

There will be a symbolic representation of "Autumn," a wine press about which are little maids with wreaths and garlanded hair. This will be presided over by Miss Blanche Soper and Miss Vere Greenwell. The fish pond will be presided over by Miss Harynge and Mr. Sinclair. In all there will be about a dozen booths, each one of them representing a unique idea.

BINGHAM FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Hiram Bingham took place yesterday afternoon. The services were held at the family home on Alexander street at 3 o'clock, the Rev. W. M. Kincaid officiating. A large number of friends was present. A quartet composed of Mrs. Damon, Mrs. Hoare, W. W. Hall and Theo. Richards sang "Dawn." After a eulogy and a short prayer the quartet sang "We Would See Jesus." At the grave "Asleep in Jesus" was sung. Interment took place in the family plot in the rear of Kawaiahao church.

The pallbearers were: Rev. H. H. Parker, F. Parker, A. F. Cooke, Dr. J. M. Whitney, Rev. O. P. Emerson, and Prof. W. D. Alexander.
